§ PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Translating emerging tech into commercial outcomes.

AI product founder and decision-intelligence leader with fifteen years translating emerging technology into scalable commercial and social outcomes.

Founder & CEO of Aletheai, building the UK's first patent-pending, multi-signal behavioural prediction engine for estate agents — with a strategic partnership and live pilot secured at Alto (Zoopla Group), unlocking distribution to 10,000+ UK agents and a projected £500K ARR in year one.

Track record spans founding four ventures (Aletheai, Monogram Publishers, Shake Your Power, Glass Lab / Trash Surface Bureau), earning a US patent, winning two Gold Awards at the London Design Awards, publishing an Amazon paperback (2022), hosting the Stand Out podcast, and leading design teams of 12+ at a 250K-member consumer platform.

Featured in FRAME Magazine, Inhabitat, and international design press. Regularly invited to lecture, judge, mentor and exhibit internationally — including at the V&A, RCA, European Commission, and London College of Communication. Senior Lecturer (former) at Nottingham Trent University. Judge for LCC Accelerate 2026. Education Ambassador for CREATE.

Aletheai (formerly PropMatch IQ) • London, UK

DEC 2024 — PRESENT

Founder & CEO • AI Decision Intelligence for PropTech

Founded and lead Aletheai, a patent-pending behavioural decision-intelligence engine for UK estate agents. Incubated at AI Forge. Three-time pitch finalist. Live pilot and strategic partnership secured with Alto (Zoopla Group).

- Designed and filed a patent-pending multi-signal behavioural prediction model — a category-defining IP asset in the £14Bn UK estate agency market (10,000+ potential users).
- Secured strategic partnership and live pilot commitment with Alto (Zoopla Group) — a distribution pathway to the majority of UK estate agencies.
- Built and shipped 12+ production releases in under 12 months: prediction engine, mixed-heuristic layer, behavioural primitives, agent dashboard, synthetic data generator, and Alto API adapter.
- Validated commercial impact: ~10 hours recovered per agent per week, ~£60K annual revenue opportunity per agent, materially improved conversion through better prioritisation.
- Led end-to-end commercial strategy — ARR modelling targeting £500K Y1, tiered pricing architecture, and senior stakeholder engagement (Innovate UK, STFC, PropTech leadership).
- Delivered investor pitches as an AI Forge finalist on three occasions (Sept 17, Sept 24, Nov 26 2025, London).

Monogram Publishers London, UK

2014 — PRESENT

Founder & CEO • Independent Publishing House

Independent publishing company championing entrepreneurs, experts, and cultural storytellers. Builds authority for small business owners through books, digital content, and a dedicated podcast platform.

- Published titles spanning business, productivity, and Italian wine culture — including the founder's own 2022 paperback The Art of Getting Stuff Done.
- Founded and host Stand Out by Monogram Publishers — a podcast where innovation meets creativity in publishing.
- Define editorial strategy, author coaching, and digital-content production pipelines; oversee book development, design, and go-to-market.
- Direct Monogram's brand positioning as a publishing house built for the creator-entrepreneur economy.

DiSH Creative, Ltd London, UK

APR 2024 — DEC 2024

UX Designer & Strategist, Applied AI

Independent consultancy leading applied-AI strategy, service design, and executive enablement for clients navigating AI adoption across commercial and non-profit sectors.

- Delivered applied-AI product strategy engagements producing up to 60% operational efficiency gains and 25% increases in user engagement.
- Designed AI-driven automation frameworks combining rules, model-driven assistance, and human oversight — reducing manual workflows by ~40%, lowering operating costs by up to 35%.
- Ran executive and board-level workshops leveraging generative AI for use-case prioritisation, brand positioning, and commercial alignment — contributing to a 20% lift in client brand recognition.
- Developed data and impact-measurement strategies for NGOs, translating qualitative outcomes into structured metrics for stronger funding narratives.
